

THUESDAY EVENING DEC 5, 18 5.

THOUGH THE session of Congress ha just commenced, the President has declared himself in favor of the "Monroe doctrine;" numerous resolutions and petitions have been introduced in both tives endorsing that doctrine, and several speeches to the same effect have already been made. And yet nothing is plainer than the fact that 15 minutes. Mr. Sherman, chairman, the other nations of this hemisphere resent the protection of the United States assumed by that doctrine. The doctrine is a humbug. The United States have no more right to interfere in an affiair between Venezuela or Nicin an afflair between Venezuela or Nic-oragua and Eogland, than either of the former would have to meddle in one factions are equally divided. Messrs. between this country and Great Britain. No European country desires to establish monarchical institutions on any part of American soil on which such institutions did not exist prior to pre e ved the political equilibrium of the enunciation of the doctrine referred to, which, by the by, has the sanction of no law.

IT WAS impossible for the Governor to ignore the existence of two race tracks in Alexandria county, as they are within a few miles of each other, but why he touches so gingerly upon one, and vents the full force of his indiguation upon the other, and why he says winter racing has been, and is, conducted on the latter and not on the former, few are able to tell now, though many may be able to do so hereafter; and that he recommends the repeal of the charter of one, and not that of the other, though he is forced to acknowledge that the tracks differ in no material respect, certainly gives the censorious ground for unfavorable speculation.

THE GOVERNOR'S support of the existing election law, with a slight amendment providing that all the ballots be uniform, should be seconded by cover the deficiency. When the notes shall be restored to the treasury in paythe legislature. That law, as most unprejudiced people who have voted under it must concede, preserves order at the polls, destroys the use of money at elections, and secures to the illiterate voter, if not too foolish to ask assistance in the preparation of his ballot, a free vote and a fair count. The law is good for the State, and therefore for the democratic party. It should not be amended except in the one particular wisely recommended by the Governor.

ONLY A month ago, Gov. O'Ferrall said no case of lynching had occurred in Virginia during his administration of of the department plains with those of the State's affairs; but in his message to the legislature yesterday, he said: "With pain and mortification I bring to your attention the frequent taking of human life without due process of law within the borders of our State." So far as remembered, nobody was lynched in Virginia between the dates of the two gubernatorial utterances referred to.

AND NOW the strike of the structural iron workers in New York has been declared off, the strikers, after losing what they could ill spare, going back to work on the same terms they were receiving when they struck. They lost their wages when they were idle, but their walking delegates, who ordered the strike, drew their full pay all the time. It really seems as if strikers and better able to satisfy the demands on their brains go out at the same time. their brains go out at the same time.

IT IS understood that the New Jersey race horse people are to aid Governor O'Ferrall to the extent of their power in his effort to break up the race track at Alexander's Island, their object being to obtain for the new track they are to establish in Maryland, the Washington patronage that the Alexander's Island track now receives.

Many people who compare Colonel Wellford Corbin's views on the present ficancial situation, as printed in snoth er column, with those of President Cleveland, as announced in his recent message to Congress, will be disposed to give their approval to the former, rrther than to the latter.

THOUGH the tariff on steel rails is $7.84 and the freight $1.50 a ton, the American manufacturers have put such a price on their's that whole cargoes are being imported. There may be sense in thus driving trade away from their own country, but, if so, it is not apparent.

ELOPMENT .- Frances L. Higginson, wife of the famous Boston banker, and a social favorite, has forsaken her home and family, leaving no word behind her. She had been gone over two weeks. There is also missing from the same social set Mr. James Wheatland Smith a young lawyer. Mrs. Higginson is within a few months of forty years of age, and the mother of four children. Her husband is about ten years her senior. Smith is only twentysix years of age. The republicans will hold a caucus immediately after the Senate adjourns this afternoon. Mr. Sherman has made up his committee to fill the Senate committee vacancies and will submit it to the caucus. It is believed to be satisfactory to both factions. The republican caucus adjourned in named the following to fill the vacancies in committees: Messrs. Mr. Call also introduced a bill compelling all railroad companies to pay employees injured in the line of duty the pay they were receiving at the time of their dis ability and during the continuance of the disability; the bill also provides that in case of death the railroad company shall pay to the widow of such employe the amount of wages received by her husband per month during her natural life, and to the children until they reach the age of sixteen years. The doorkeeper of the House, Mr Glenn, is out of the city, in New York, and is doubtless glad of it, as he is too far away to hear the cry of the hungry office seekers. His private secretary informed a Virginia republican to-day that no changes in the offices would take place at present. He further stated that Speaker Reed had asked in the interest of the orderly and efficient conduct of House affairs that a period of at least ten days shall elapse before a "cleaning out" be made. He also stated that a large number of the New York congresmen had voluntarily re linquished their claim to any patronage n order that Mr. Gleun might be the would help a little but the demand was far too great to be met and much disappointment would inevitably result. There is an impression to the effect that the President leans toward jingoism. Nothing could be more incorrect. There was nothing more objectionable to the President and to his former Secretary of State, Mr. Gresham, than any thing pertaining to jingoism, and the GAZETTE's correspondent is warranted in saying that the President is of the

Mr. Louis Willis, a son of the well-known Col. These special appointments were hotly contested for, but young Browning with remarkable dash and skill led a field of ten or more opponents and won by a large majori-ty. The plot thickens in regard to Southern contested election cases. Col. Lamb of Norfolk, the new chairman of the Virginia republican State committee and the new national committeeman, has had a late interview with the Speaker iu which the Virginia election cases were discussed and the point settled that a prompt hearing would be had. Ger. Walker frankly avows his expectation and willingness to serve on the elections committee, which means an aggressive and offensive warfare against the Walton law and the congressional election returns made thereunder. But this is not all; Speaker Reed, spurred on by the demands of Southern republican con-testants and flattered by promises of a large vote from that section is debating, and will doubtless determine on the plan for hurrying the trial of these cases, which if carried into execution will soon put a quietus to them. He will use his great influence, in the language of the courts, to "speed these causes" by a division of the election committee into three sections, each section to be assigned a certain number of cases for examination and report to the general committee, and thus will have in practical operation three committees in place of one to do the important and tedious work of getting the contests in readiness for the final action of the House He has thrown out "feelers" to democratic members respecting this plan. Of course the democratic members will protest against so unusual a proceed ing, but in all probability avail. Lively times may be expected in a number of these cases.

During the morning hour in the Senate many bills were introduced and referred to committees, among them one by Mr. Mills to provide for coinage of the silver in the Treasury, and one by Mr. Chandler to provide, in connec-tion with other nations, for the unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the ratio of one to 15½.

Mr. Dubois offered his resolution to the record of the trial.

Mr. Gallinger offered a resolution declaring it to be "the sense of the Senate that it is unwise and inexpedient to retire the greenbacks;" and it was referred to the committee on finance.

The resolution offered by Mr. Call for the recognition of the Cuban insurgents and authorizing the President to secure an observance of the laws of war in Cubs, wes taken up and Mr. Call addressed the Senate. He de-scribed the conduct of the Spanish troops in Cuba as "merciless and in disregard of age. sex and condition."
"The Cubans," he ad led, "have been acting on the principles which we have declared, and on the advice which we have given to them; and that we should silently permit this war to proceed without a single word of encouragement is not creditable to this government. Spain declared that the Southern Confederacy was a belligerent power, and recognized her, and the English government also recogniz-ed the civil war in the South. Why should we not, then, when the Cubans have acted on our example, under our advice, under our instructions, justify their forcible resistance? should we allow Spain to purchase supplies in our ports and forbid the same right to the Cubans? At the close of Mr. Call's speech the esolution was referred to the committee on foreign relations. The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of executive business,
